Would you like to assist with Flower Arranging at St James?

Every week we receive a donation of flowers from Damian Galuzzo, of Galuzzo's on Glebe Point Road. They are arranged on a Friday or Saturday in time for mass at 5pm.

There are only three people on the roster, so it's quite a commitment each week.

Could you spare a week every so often to assist with arranging flowers? The Parish will be happy to organise a flower arranging course if required and assistance will be provided in the first few weeks.

The Altar Roster for next year is currently being prepared.

Please contact Mary Flanagan on 0409 690 680 or Brooke at the office on 9660 1407 if you would like to help.

READERS NEEDED!

If you would like to be on the next readers roster for December 2017 to March 2018.

Please contact Brooke at the office on 9660 1407 or email info@stjames-stbede.org.au

St Martin of Tours was born the son of a soldier, circa 315 AD. Born in present day Hungary, he was brought up in Pavia, Italy. As a young officer he encountered a naked beggar, and having nothing to give but the clothes off his own back, he cut his military cloak in two and half to the beggar. Later he had a vision of Christ wearing his cloak and soon after he was baptised. Before a battle, St Martin asked to be discharged from the army, stating that as Christ's soldier he was not permitted to fight. When accused of cowardice he offered to stand unarmed on the battlefield between the two opposing armies. After his release, St Martin founded a monastery at Liguage—the first in France—and was made the bishop of Tours in 370AD. He was also an active missionary in rural France and spoke in defence of those being executed by the Emperor for practising magic and other heresies. He was one of the first nonmartyrs to be made a saint.

Complete the maze by making the right choices

Start out as a humble servant of others

You see a fellow student struggling to carry all their books. So you... stop and offer to help carry the books / ignore them and walk on by

You win a prize for a science project that a friend helped you with. So you...
 acknowledge your friend's help and share the prize / take all the credit

You come first in a school running race. So you... tell everyone how good you were / encourage the others to run faster next time

Someone pays you a compliment for being clever. So you say...
 "Of course I'm clever! Everyone knows that!" / "Thankyou.."

Congratulations! You make a great leader

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Forsake me not, O Lord, my God;
be not far from me!
Make haste and come to my help,
O Lord, my strong salvation!

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

COLLECT

Almighty and merciful God,
by whose gift your faithful offer you
right and praiseworthy service,
grant, we pray,
that we may hasten without stumbling
to receive the things you have promised.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the
unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

FIRST READING

Malachi 1:14 – 2:2. 8-10

I am a great king, says the Lord of hosts, and my name is feared throughout the nations. And now, priests, this warning is for you. If you do not listen, if you do not find it in your heart to glorify my name, says the Lord of hosts, I will send the curse on you and curse your very blessing. You have strayed from the way; you have caused many to stumble by your teaching. You have destroyed the covenant of Levi, says the Lord of hosts. And so I in my turn have made you contemptible and vile in the eyes of the whole people in repayment for the way you have not kept to my paths but have shown partiality in your administration. Have we not all one Father? Did not one God create us? Why, then, do we break faith with one another, profaning the covenant of our ancestors?

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

In you, Lord, I have found my peace.

SECOND READING

1 Thessalonians 2:7-9. 13

Like a mother feeding and looking after her own children, we felt so devoted and protective towards you, and had come to love you so much, that we were eager to hand over to you not only the Good News but our whole lives as well. Let me remind you, brothers, how hard we used to work, braving night and day so as not to be a burden on any one of you while we were proclaiming God's Good News to you.

Another reason why we constantly thank God for you is that as soon as you heard the message that we brought you as God's message, you accepted it for what it really is, God's message and not some human thinking; and it is still a living power among you who believe it.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

You have one Father,
your Father in heaven;
you have one teacher: the Lord Jesus Christ.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Matthew 23:1-12

Addressing the people and his disciples Jesus said, 'The scribes and the Pharisees occupy the chair of Moses. You must therefore do what they tell you and listen to what they say; but do not be guided by what they do: since they do not practise what they preach. They tie up heavy burdens and lay them on men's shoulders, but will they lift a finger to move them? Not they! Everything they do is done to attract attention, like wearing broader phylacteries and longer tassels, like wanting to take the place of honour at banquets and the front seats in the synagogues, being greeted obsequiously in the market squares and having people call them Rabbi. 'You, however, must not allow yourselves to be called Rabbi, since you have only one Master, and you are all brothers. You must call no one on earth your father, since you have only one Father, and he is in heaven. Nor must you allow yourselves to be called teachers, for you have only one Teacher, the Christ. The greatest among you must be your servant. Anyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and anyone who humbles himself will be exalted.'

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven & earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

May these sacrificial offerings,
O Lord,
become for you a pure oblation,
and for us a holy outpouring of
your mercy.
Through Christ our Lord.

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION:

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

You will show me the path of life,
the fullness of joy in your presence,
O Lord.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

May the working of your power,
O Lord, increase in us, we pray,
so that, renewed by these heavenly Sacraments, we may be prepared by your gift for receiving what they promise. Through Christ our Lord.
